NATIONAL VACCINE ESTABLISHMENT.

No. 8, RUSSELL PLACE, FITZROY SQUARE.

LONDON.

Medical practitioners, in all parts of the Empire, may be supplied with Vaccine Lymph, without any expense, from the NATIONAL VACCINE ESTABLISHMENT.

You are particularly requested, as soon as you see, after the receipt and use of this Lymph, and whenever you repeat, at any time, your application for Lymph, to report to the Establishment the number you have vaccinated from each supply, and with what result.

Pray have the kindness to attend to the above request.—(Signed) C. H.

Surgeons are advised to employ recent liquid Vaccine Lymph, whenever it is in their power; and with this view, to vaccinate their patients in succession, for the purpose of keeping up a supply.

Letters of application for Lymph, and communications respecting Vaccination, are to be addressed, unsealed,

"To Dr. HUE, Registrar of the N. V. E.
Russell Place, Fitzroy Square."

And enclosed in an outside cover, directed thus :

To the Right Hon^{ble}
The Secretary of State,
Home Department,
Whitehall.

National Vaccine
Establishment.

As Inoculation of the Small Pox is altogether unjustifiable, the Board have resolved, that if any Vaccinator of this Establishment shall so inoculate, his name be erased from the List.

* It is proper that it should be known, that Persons exposing Patients affected with the Small Pox, and Medical Practitioners and others who inoculate that disease and concur in such exposure, are liable to a criminal prosecution for the offence.

* See the Cases of the The King v. Sophia Fortescue, 4th Maule and Selwyn's Reports, p. 73;—The King v. Burnett, 4th Maule and Selwyn, p. 292;—And see the Judgment of Lord DENMAN, Chief Justice, in the Queen v. Squires, tried at the Dorchester Assizes, March 1849, on passing sentence on the prisoner, who had been convicted of Manslaughter, for inoculating the deceased with Small Pox;—"He hoped it would be made generally public, that if a party ventured to inoculate another, he was not only liable to imprisonment under the statute, but in case death ensued he was liable to be indicted for the crime of Manslaughter;"—Times Newspaper, 19th March, 1849.
